PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATIONS

Certified Wealth Strategist® - CWS®

CWS® represents the Certified Wealth Strategist designation. The mission of the CWS® board is to provide financial services professionals with the technical knowledge, the practice management formula, and the critical client interaction skills to create and build a dynamic Wealth Advisory practice that works effectively with more complex client issues. This highly acclaimed program is one of the fastest growing certifications in the industry because it is about both knowledge and application – it is about the Advisor's goal to become their client's trusted advisor.

Obtaining Cannon Financial Institutes Certified Wealth Strategist® certification requires approximately 6-months of comprehensive study using a blended approach to learning. Cannon Financial Institute owns the marks CWS® and Certified Wealth Strategist® in the U.S., which it awards to individuals who successfully complete the entire program and pass the Capstone project as well as complete the CWS® Board of Standard's ongoing certification requirements.

The CWS® Practitioner receives ongoing CWS® resources to guide them in refining and evolving with changing marketplace/industry demands. These resources are time and support the practitioner throughout the life of their practice.

ITEM 3 Disciplinary Information

Heath Stanley has not been and/or is presently not involved in any disciplinary, legal, or regulatory events that would be material to a client's evaluation of him or of NWWA.

ITEM 4 Other Business Activities

Heath Stanley is also an insurance agent licensed to sell insurance products. He spends 5% of his time in this role. A conflict of interest exists because these services pay a commission, which conflicts with the IAR's fiduciary duties. NWWA does not require its IARs to encourage clients to implement investment advice through our insurance product recommendations. Clients have the right to implement insurance product recommendations through the insurance agency and agent of their choice. We require that all IARs disclose this conflict of interest when such recommendations are made. We also require IARs to disclose that the client has the right to purchase recommended products from individuals not affiliated with us.
